Presents

the

1963 Shelana

Dedication

MRS. ELVIN HILL

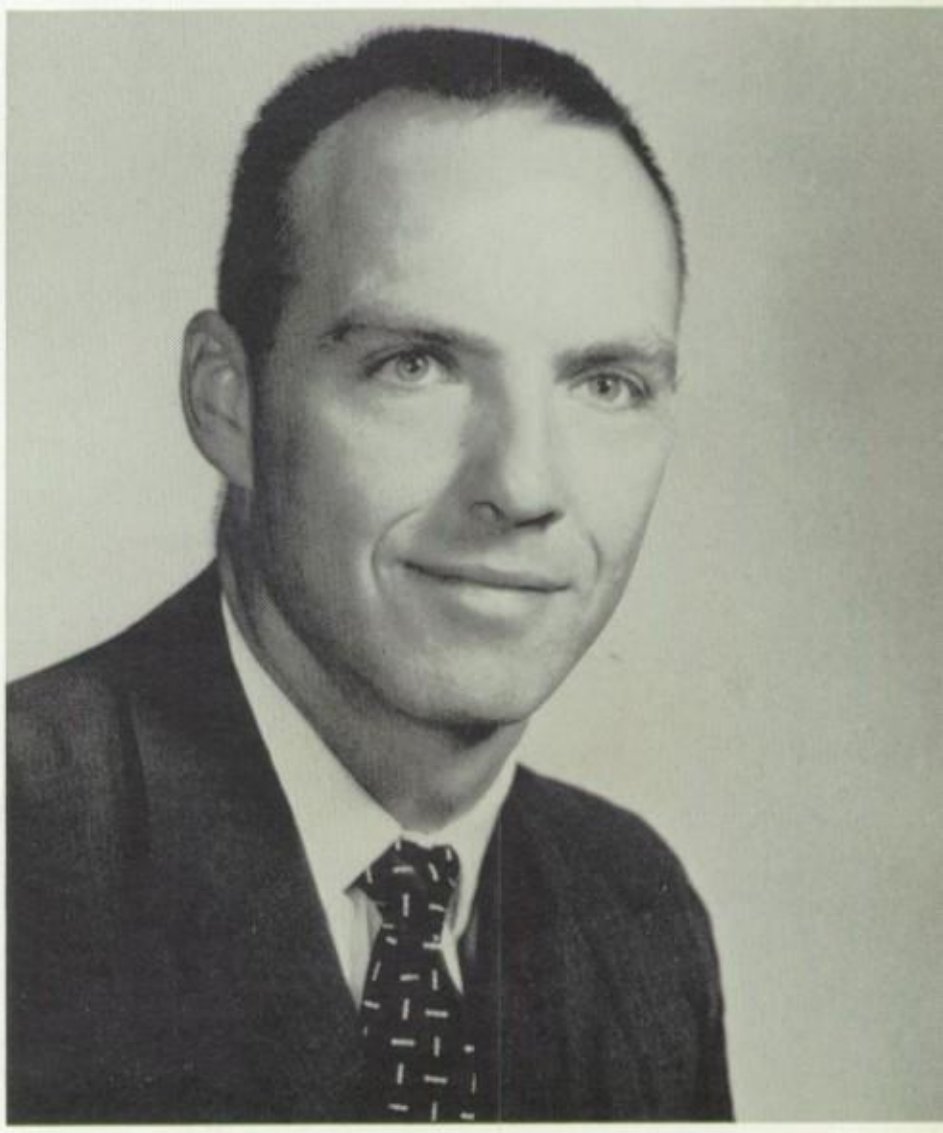
We, the seniors of the class of 1963, proudly dedicate this yearbook to you, Mrs. Elvin Hill and Mrs. Homer Joiner, for your untiring efforts, patience, encouragement and interest shown to us in years past.

MRS. HOMER JOINER

In Appreciation

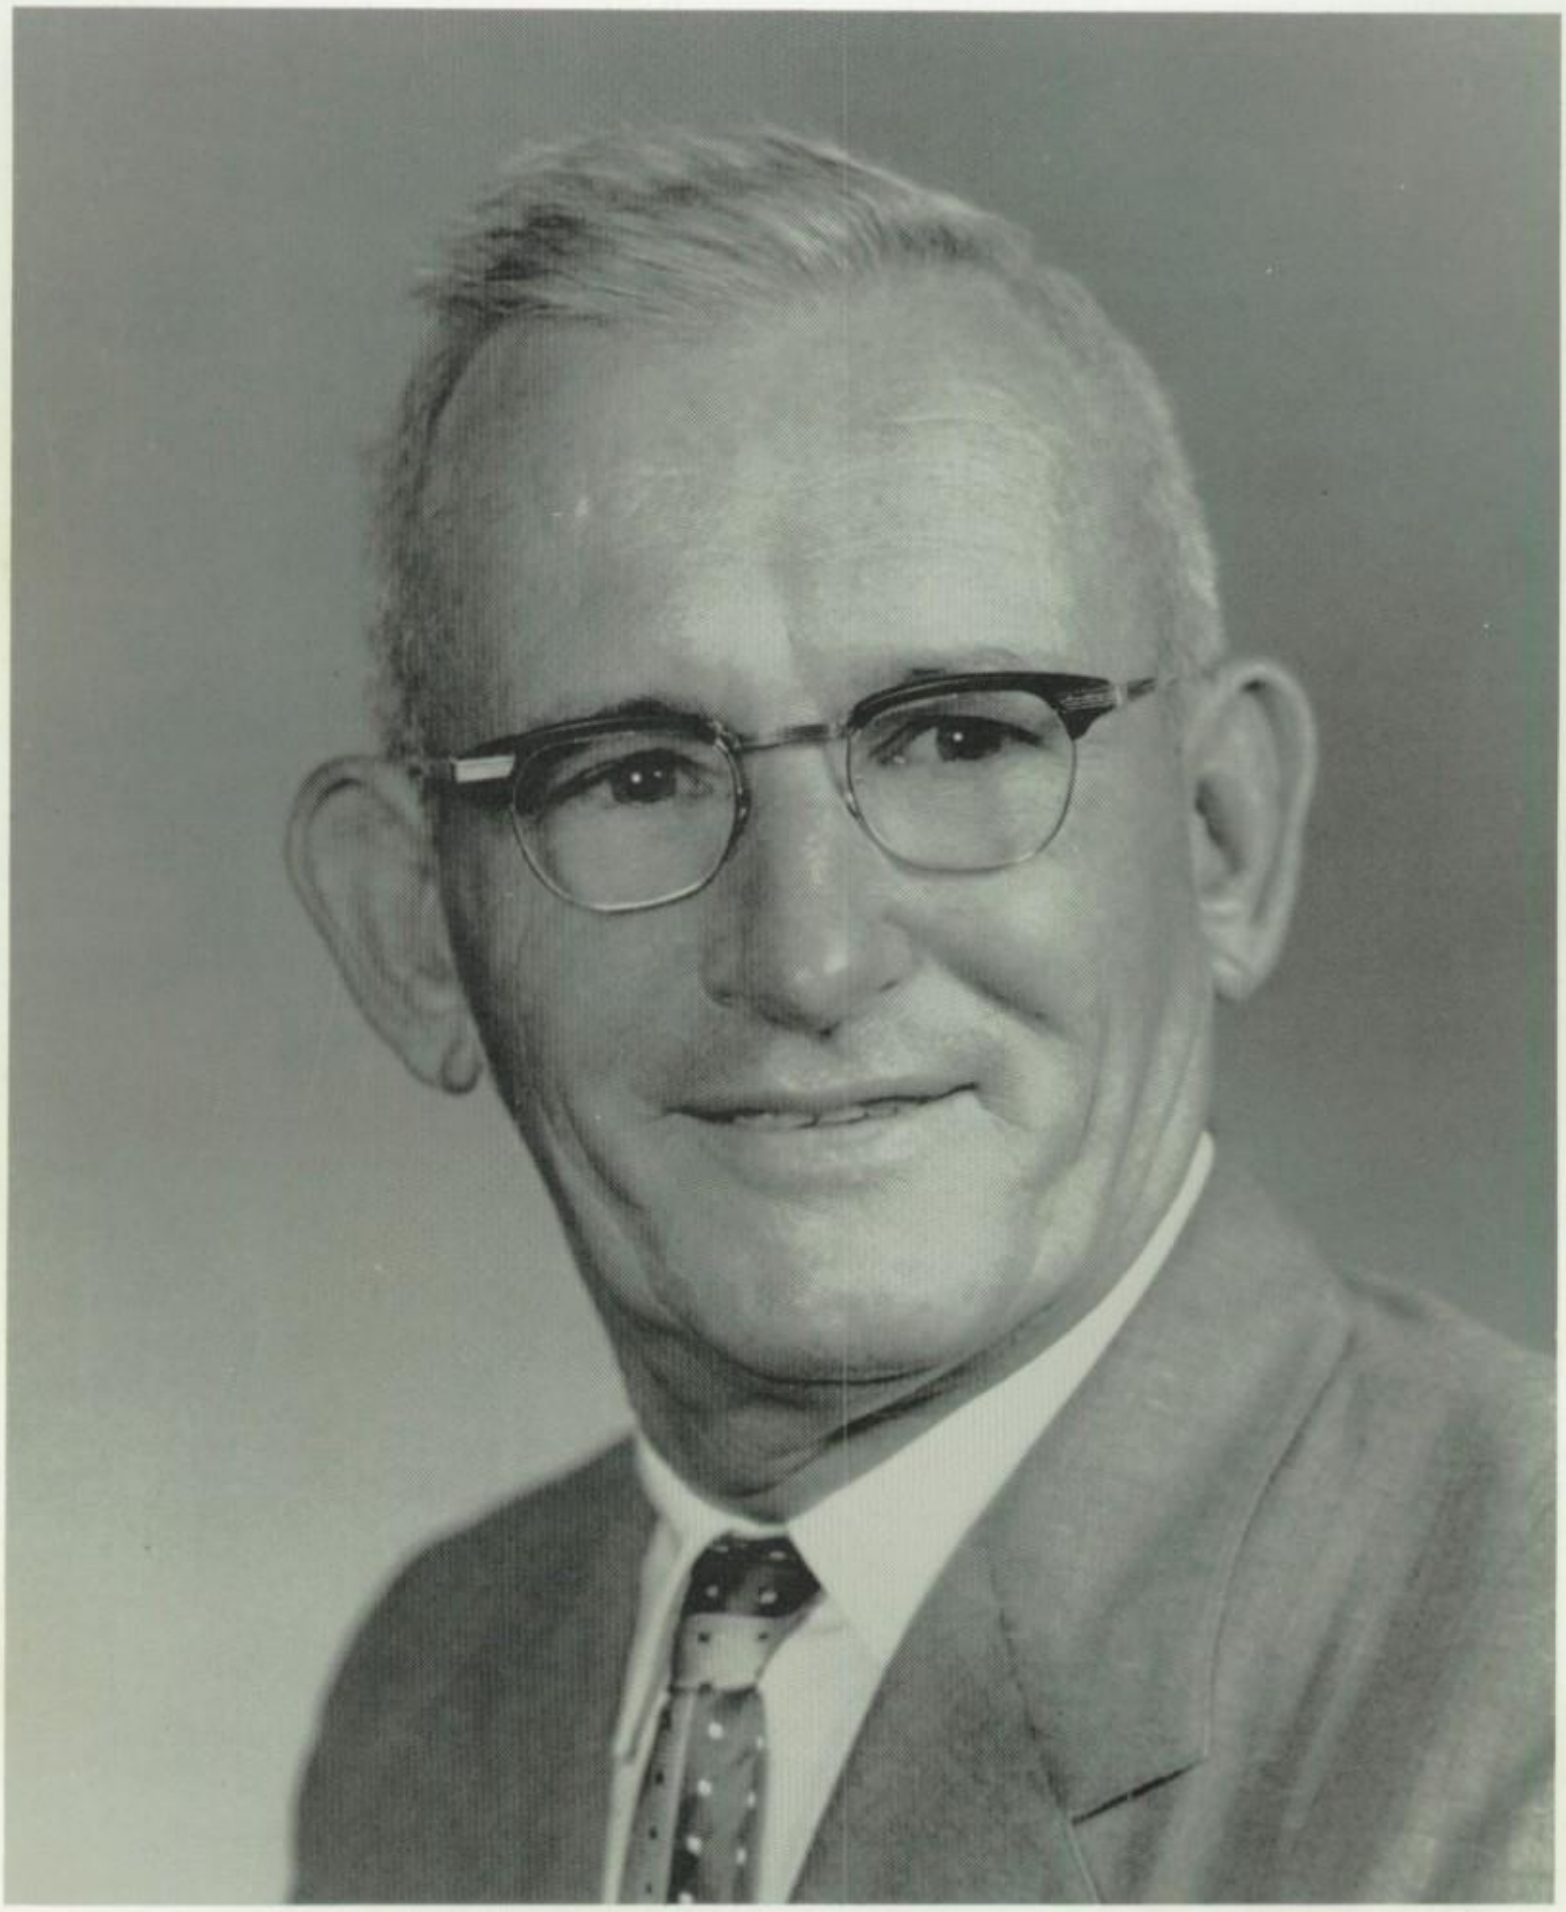
COACH DON BULGER

To our advisors, Coach Don Bulger and Mr. Albert Hylton, we wish to express our appreciation for their assistance and guidance. Each of us sincerely extends his fondest thanks and best wishes for the future.



MR. ALBERT HYLTON

Memoriam



We, the Senior Class of 1963, dedicate this page with affection and respect to Mr. F. E. Williams.

"His life was gentle, and the elements
So mixed in him that Nature might stand up
And say to all the world, 'This was a man!'"

Favorite Teachers

We regret that we were unable to take a picture of these teachers, but we could never catch them when it was convenient; however, we did not want to leave out the rest of our favorite teachers!

A Tribute to the Teacher

The teacher is a prophet;	He lays the foundations of tomorrow.
The teacher is an artist;	He works with the precious clay of unfolding personality.
The teacher is a friend;	His heart responds to the faith and devotion of his students.
The teacher is a citizen;	He is selected and licensed for the improvement of society.
The teacher is an interpreter;	Out of his maturer and wider life he seeks to guide the young.
The teacher is a builder;	He works with the higher and finer values of civilization.
The teacher is a culture-bearer;	He leads the way toward worthier tastes, saner attitudes, more gracious manners, higher intelligence.
The teacher is a planner;	He sees the young lives before him as a part of a great system which shall grow stronger in the light of truth.
The teacher is a pioneer;	He is always attempting the impossible and winning out.
The teacher is a reformer;	He seeks to remove the handicaps that weaken and destroy life.
The teacher is a believer;	He has abiding faith in the improvability of the race.

(Joy Elmer Morgan)

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1963, wish to express our thanks to each teacher who has helped us along the way these 12 years - the most important years in our lives. We will never be able to put into words how much each of you mean to each of us, but we think that this poem expresses our feelings. We shall never forget you, and we shall always love and cherish you.

ATHLETICS

Leading the Wildcat cheers for this season, this energetic group has proved a large factor in the spirit behind the Wildcat team. Head McCormick and her able staff have come up with yells both original and well beloved, so S.C.H.S. is indebted to them for their enthusiastic participation.

Seniors

There are various forms of athletics at S.C.H.S. Many hours of hard practice and after school sessions are spent in order to prepare themselves to be fit and capable to wear the title "athlete." Our students admire our athletes and strive to prove their loyalty.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of 1963, being in as good mental condition as usual, and in much better temper than usual, do hereby make this, our last will and testament, rendering void and of no avail any former will or wills that may have been previously made by us during a period of temporary optimism.

Louis Atkinson, Douglas Joseph and Paul Starnes will their ability to get along with Mr. Hughes to Mackie Dupree and Roy Starnes.

Seleatha Brumbeloe wills her friendly smile to Martha Martin.

Terry Templin wills his ability to drive a school bus safely to Eddie Martin.

Judy Jones leaves her shy sweet ways to Rebecca Hope and Ann Ray.

Jerry Skelton wills his "best-all-aroundness" to Mike Lovett.

Gene Boone wills his ability to score in basketball to Ronny Tidmore.

Elaine Bishop wills her undisputed title of Biggest Flirt to Lyn Wood.

John Larry "Dib Dab" Watkins wills his ability to answer "present" at roll call to Jimmy Jones.

Randy Morris leaves his ability to play outstanding football to Wayne Finley and John "Moose" Morris.

Ricky Carter wills his ability to burn up the roads to Wilsonville to Kenny Skelton.

Mickey Hardin and Kay Murdock will their lasting friendship and many good times to Susan Lovett and Dorothy Smith.

Doris Foster wills her ability to like a boy in a far-away place to Helen Foster.

Wayne Gordon wills his great musical talent to Louie Armstrong and Ronny Gore.

Frances Hardy leaves her reserved ways to Ida Fay Whitner.

Deloris Lamar leaves her hearty laugh to Olean Kenny.

George McNeill leaves his slow-but-sure ways to Tommy Milstead.

Dwight Scott leaves his ability to answer history questions thoroughly to Kerry Kent Nivens.

Douglas Joseph wills his ability to be "quiet and studious" in study hall to Bruce Dean.

Skipper Smith leaves his great sense of humor to Paul Smith.

Dinah Davis leaves her genuine friendliness to Grace Ozley.

Perry Edwards wills her love of chemistry to Bobbye Barrett.

Janice McCormick wills her ability to type to Sandra Jane Jones.

Pat Lyon leaves her black curly locks to Diana Brasher and Betty Sue Hughes.

Diane "Dee Dee" Rush leaves her drum majorette whistle to Lyn Wood.

Jimmy "Wee Willie" Williamson wills his love of chewing gum to Don Cross.

Edna Gould wills her title as most athletic to Linda McKinnon.

Hank Spires wills his ability to keep on good terms with the faculty and still do as he pleases to next year's president.

Carol Horn leaves her ability to work in the office to Ina Lou Farmer.

Ann and Barbara Benson leave their laughable lovable ways to Nettie and Bettie Barnes.

Eugene Curtis leaves his crew cut to Butch Batson.

Robert "Ott" Weaver leaves his ability to get into a mess to Dennis Ray and Eddie Templin.

Tommy Lovelady leaves the Chelsea bus to Mike Vick and Ted Harper.

Nancy Morris and Phyllis Allen will their pleasant Jr. High School memories to Ella Jay Ford and Juanita Morris.

Kenneth White wills his love of reading the newspaper to Steve Cain, Rodney Ross and Danny Hope.

Gerald "Gerty" Fulton leaves his size to Robert "Tiny" Ford.

Larry "Peter" Patterson leaves all his masculine charms to David "Buddy" Wyatt.

Wayne Blankenship leaves his driving habits to Harry Hunt, Don Sheffield, and Dale Talton.

Nancy Horton Moore and Gale Bentley Farr will married happiness to Nancy Wheeler and Joyce Foster.

Erma Ruth Gardner leaves her "shortness" to Sandy Boozer and Judy Baker.

Earl Hughes wills his curly brown locks to John Wayne Davis, Tommy Howell, Gary Pate, and Leonard Brasher, who may divide them among themselves.

Jerry Mooney wills his seat in English to Kerry Nivens.

Angela Skelton wills her unlimited intelligence to Nell Gardner.

Carol Harrison wills her ability to be on time to Nancy Dorough and Pat Moon.

Mickey Hardin leaves her ability to keep Mrs. Brown's class in chaos to Judy Mooney.

Barbara Kendrick, Bunny Weldon, and Nancy Brewer leave all the good times on the bus to Sandra Isbell and Juanita Lovelady.

Prissy Saxon, Sue Smith, and Glenda Templin leave their ability to get into mischief to anyone that smart to do it.

Dean White leaves her helpfulness to Linda Armstrong.

Virginia Vincent leaves her picture collection to Carolyn Etress, Dorothy Vick and Bonnie Higgins.

Mary Ellen Farr leaves "Clyde" to Sue Baker, Sherry Bircheat, and Sharon Benson.

Edna Davis, Lyla Cagle, and Mary Davis leave their bashfulness to Nelda Smith and Ruby Smith.

Peggy Jones Glenn leaves her sparkling eyes and vibrant personality to anybody fortunate enough to get them.

Any property or personal possessions of ours that may remain in addition to the items specified may be bottled and kept for posterity in Mr. Rush's laboratory. We can think of nothing that we have forgotten except our old books (the covers of which we have eaten off), and we have planned to use them and our many notebooks as fuel for an enormous bonfire immediately following graduation.

In witness whereof we, the class of 1963, the testator, have set our hand and seal upon this 18th day of January in the year 1963.
